

What people who know me like and admire about me

I am hard working, serious and make the best out of any circumstance.

I am organised (some might say a tad too organised).

I am passionate about things important to me.

I have a good sense of humour and enjoy laughing.

I am solution-seeking and try to find the best alternative in any situation.

What is important to me

Enjoying some time off with my partner, discovering new countries with her and tasting local cuisine.

Visiting my family abroad and my friends.

Riding my horses and spending time with them.

I like people being honest and direct with me.

I like learning new things.

What is important for me

Relaxing, whilst walking in the countryside and discovering new landscapes.

Enjoying a special moment with family and friends around a table.

Watching my horses in their paddocks.

How I like to be supported

I do not have universal knowledge, so I welcome the help of others. Learning from others is essential.

Being with positive people who look at things in a forward way makes such a difference.

Do not hesitate to reach out and to engage with me. I am here to help.
