

What people who know me like and admire about me

I am known for being approachable and a good listener and someone who sets high standards and leads by example.

What is important to me

I am passionate about people and love to help them succeed.

I am a very proud Dad and my family are at the centre of my life.

I am a die-hard football fan, having avidly followed Liverpool all my life. Until recently I was also coaching youth football which I found incredibly rewarding.

We have recently added a Spanish Water Dog to the family and are having a lot of fun with her!

What is important for me

I like to work hard but know that I have the balance of work and my home life under control. I like to feel that I am contributing and that my contributions are heard and valued.

How I like to be supported

There are times when I need to reflect and I also like to operate in an environment where I can give and receive constructive feedback.